SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXVIII. STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1900. 9 A. M. NO. 68

THE EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Our more or less esteemed republican contemporary, the Lexington Herald, is ever on the lookout for more worlds to conquer. Having selected Yerkes and defeated Bryan by its little self, the conquering hero deadees over the line into the Eight Congressional district and opens battle for the republican nominee, to whom it gives a fine certificate of character and pronounces worthy to represent the district formerly so ably represented by Gov. James B. McCreary for twelve years, not to mention that distinguished patriot and civil liberty lover, the Hon. Milton J. Durham, who, as a democrat, also represented it a few terms. When the astute and distinguished editor of the Herald says the district is doubtful and that Dr. John Mason Williams would "make a fair representative of the district in which he lives and of the people among whom he has resided," he shows a lamentable ignorance of the conditions prevailing there, and is either desirous of maligning the people of that district, which embraces as much real worth and as great a degree of intelligence as any in the State, or determined to exalt the republican nominee at the expense of truth.

Dr. Williams is a good, clever, fat and jolly, hale fellow, well-met, but his most enthusiastic admirer would not have the hardihood to claim that he has the slightest qualification for a Congressman or that he could fill the seat so admirably filled by Hon. G. G. Gilbert, except in a physical sense. He is about as little learned in statecraft as any man the republicans could have selected, and they would not have selected him if they had thought they had the ghost of a show to elect him. Numerous and sundry escapades together with his attempt to open a bar-room in Louisville, which was prevented by the church people, show that the bent of his mind is not toward law making but law breaking. The election of such a man would be a reflection on the district, which, happily, there is no prospect of happening.

The Herald is moved to compliment Mr. Gilbert, but like most of its compliments, there is a sting to it. "Personally" of course, it has the kindest feelings for him, and while it has "never been able to believe that Mr. Gilbert personally approves that course of his party and endorses the action and conduct of those who have seized its organization and control its action, his election will be considered a triumph of that spirit in politics which is now known as Goebelism." Whether the Herald believes it or not Mr. Gilbert is in thorough sympathy with his party, which would not give him the enthusiastic hearing and kindly greeting that he receives on every hand, if he were not. None but the true blue go in the 8th district. Time servers and turncoats are given the icy stare and cold shake. The democrats there recognize no double standard in democracy, if they do in monetary affairs, and the man who wins must be the whole thing, all wool and a yard wide, which that same Congressman Gilbert is. They do not believe that Taylor was defrauded of the governorship, because they knew that while he may have had a majority on the face of the returns, he was not elected by the honest and legal vote of the State.

The tommy-rot published by republican papers and mouthed by republican orators about the party being robbed of the offices, is only for the purpose of diverting attention from the record made by their party leaders during the reign of terror at Frankfort, unparalleled in the history of the State or nation.

Democrats believe that Taylor's apparent majority was obtained by fraud in the use of tissue ballots and in the use of the military and the courts, and commend and applaud the Legislative committee that had the courage to perform a manifest duty to the State and to the party.

The Herald may rage in its attempt to make the people imagine a vain thing, but its efforts will be regarded with a natural suspicion and its labor of love be lost. The Eighth district will return Mr. Gilbert to Congress and give Dr. Williams no chance "to devote himself with fidelity to the duties of the office," in which he would be as much out of place as a bull in a china shop. When the democrats want any advice they do not seek it from republican papers, traitors or renegades, and the Herald might as well cease from troubling.—Lexington Democrat.

RESTORED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and rescued the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store.

A New York woman prayed for a son and got three of them.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I would recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the Remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

The other day a Cincinnati gardener received word that an uncle in Germany had died and left him $40,000. Then his horses ran away, threw him out of his wagon and broke his neck. From which, we argue, it is not always possible to tell whether one is born lucky or not.

LANCASTER.

Prof. Secrest's school is a drawing card for Kirksville.

Our democrats are jubilant since Billy Marrs gave them Billy McGary's figures on the election.

Mrs. J. I. Hamilton has gone to Memphis to join her husband, who is there with stock.

Mr. R. L. Elkin has the finest fowls in the country. He took a premium over Vanderbilt's fowls at Atlanta.

Messrs. James Smith and J. B. Jennings, two experienced young men, are managers of the clothing department at G. H. Sutton's.

Postmaster W. T. West has received two letters from officers in the Broadway Christian church, Louisville, stating that Elder George Gowen is giving perfect satisfaction as pastor of that church.

Mrs. Prudence Pope, aged 78 years, an estimable old lady, died on Sunday. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wolford at the Baptist church on Tuesday, and the remains were buried in Lancaster cemetery.

Since our last issue, reported the speeches and stock sales of last Monday nothing remains to be said of court day except that the will of Mr. J. W. Poor was probated, dividing his handsome estate equitably among his heirs.

Hon. R. H. Tomlinson attended court at Nicholasville this week. Rev. R. R. West, of Washington City, is here with relatives. Messrs. J. Joseph and G. B. Swinebroad represented our K. of P. lodge in the grand lodge at Winchester.

Our city is remarkably quiet since Mr. S. D. Turner began to serve as special police. The whisky dens are virtually out of business. Only one shot has been fired and Ottie Jones was arrested and fined $10 for doing it. Mr. Turner is certainly the right man.

I was out of town Wednesday night, but I am informed that W. A. Gaines, the colored republican orator, spoke at the court-house and indulged in the usual reproach and abuse of the democrats, claiming that all of the leading democrats had joined the republican party. The woodcocks left the country immediately. His reference to Col. Bryan, as "Old Bill Bryan," was enough to disgust even a republican.

Our young folks are rapidly becoming old folks. On Thursday, 25th, Mr. Jasper Bogle and Miss Mary Leavell, a fine teacher, were married. On Wednesday Mr. Wm. A. Ray and Miss Myrtle Nave drove to Danville and took the marriage vows. Mr. Joseph Elsenor and Miss Mary A. Miller went to Nicholasville on the same day, and were married in St. Luke's Catholic church. A reception was given by the bride's parents near this city on Wednesday evening. In the parlors of the Glyndon Hotel at Richmond on the same evening, Mr. Joseph Faulconer, one of our business young men, and Miss Nancy Harris, a favorite young lady of this city, were married by Rev. Henry Faulconer, of Hillsboro, O., brother of the groom. Miss Grace Kinnaird was maid of honor and Mr. Louis West was best man. A reception was given by the groom's parents in this city on Thursday.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Methodist world-wide statistics show 7,382,146 members.

Eld. J. W. Hagan, of Lexington, will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

Elder Joseph Ballou will preach at Mt. Xenia tonight and every night until further notice. Everybody invited.

The spreading of the Gospel in China will be pushed with renewed vigor. This was the keynote of all addresses before the Episcopal Missionary Council, which is in session in Louisville.

The Christian Missionary Society has been sued for $35,000 by George T. Smith, of Cincinnati. He was for seven years a missionary to Japan and he alleges that he had a life contract with the society. He was relieved of his position some years ago.

LETTER FROM THE EX-EDITOR.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 25.—When I think that I am no longer directly connected with the INTERIOR JOURNAL, which I have watched over and nourished almost as faithful as a mother over her offspring, a feeling of sadness comes over me very much akin to that felt by the same mother over its loss. "We've had some happy hours together" and I will cherrish them in fondest memory, but a great many of them were not so pleasant and when I think of them I am not so sorry that "time must often change its wing," and that I am relieved of the eternal grind upon mind and matter that the conduct of a semi-weekly entails, especially when one has to superintend its affairs, and help sometimes as a hand, as well as do the editorial work. I may have jumped from the frying pan into the fire, by becoming the editor of a daily paper, but I am rid of the worry over delinquent subscribers, the failure of others who owe to liquidate and the annoyance of the mechanical department. Here it makes no difference to me pecuniarily whether school keeps or not. I have specified duties to perform and a lot of rich stockholders hold the bag and chew the bit if there is one to "chew," which is not likely in their case for no paper ever started with so large a patronage and reached so extensive a circulation as the Morning Democrat has in a month. It is the biggest kind of a go and is already making expenses, a most unheard of thing in daily newspaper making.

I enjoyed a visit and an excellent course dinner at the hand-some country home of Mr. W. B. Hawkins, the business manager of the Democrat, yesterday. Twenty-odd years ago Mr. Hawkins lived on a portion of the Shelby farm in Lincoln county. It was shortly after his marriage and for two years he worked early and late to lay up for a rainy day. It was rather an up-hill business there, however, and he returned to Fayette, where he has amassed a good-sized fortune on one of the finest farms in the Blue Grass. He has run a dairy for years, selling milk in the city, sometimes as much as $1.100 worth a month. At present he is milking 55 fine Jerseys and his product is in great demand. He has a charming wife and lovely daughter, Miss Mary Hawkins, to both of whom I am indebted for a very delightful time.

Politics is at white heat here and there are criminations and recriminations galore. Each side is suspicious and watching each other like hawks. The best element of town and county are democrats, but I fear the Black, Brown and other republicans slightly outnumber us. The purging of the registration lists is disclosing many names that have no right on them. They are mostly Negroes, who have no regular abiding place, but who registered, many of them from houses that do not exist. The democrats have on their fighting clothes and do not propose to be intimidated by U. S. marshals or other republican methods. They are in high feather over the return of Hon. C. J. Bronston to the fold or rather to an active participation in its affairs. He will speak for democracy at the opera house Friday afternoon and expectation is on tip-toe and interest at high tide. The Morning Democrat will publish his speech in full in its Sunday's issue, and it will doubtless prove fine campaign material.

A marriage occurred at the Phœnix Hotel yesterday, which will be of interest to your local readers. Mr. Ed B. Powell and Miss Mary Bohon, daughter of Dr. J. T. Bohon, both of the Hustonville section, were made one and left immediately for Niagara and other points East. Both are very popular young people and they will have the best wishes of hosts of friends.

W. P. WALTON.

AN article in one of the magazines on the cost of National campaigns says that the whole expense of Lincoln's first nomination was less than $700, and that only the sum of $100,000 was spent to secure his re-election in 1864. The campaign funds, however, have continually increased in size until it is estimated that this year it will exceed $5,000,000. While the republicans began their career on economical basis in this particular, they long since departed from it and to them is due the present disgraceful state of affairs. It was only by means of their vicious class legislation that mush-room fortunes could be amassed and to preserve these laws those benefited by them have always responded liberally to the demands of the campaign collectors. The growth of the evils under these laws have increased in proportion with the campaign funds. The iniquities of the protective tariff seemed to be as great a burden as could be bourne, but these, in comparison with the trusts, are as the little finger to the thigh. Instead of endeavoring to relieve the people from these oppressions the republicans have exerted themselves to keep them up. The public funds have been wasted in a shameful manner to keep down a surplus and keep up a tariff. Costly public buildings have been erected at every cross-roads in the United States and every man pensioned who joined the Federal army and many of those who thought of doing so, but changed their minds. They have at last discovered the means of keeping down a surplus, which is to engage in an eternal war of conquest. The people have all along endeavored to rid themselves of these oppressions and the greater their effort, the greater has been the corruption fund to influence the venal vote. The effort to throttle the trusts is a life and death struggle. Realizing this, the republicans have determined to save them if money can do it; consequently their campaign fund has grown to an enormous size.

IN response to a portion of one of Beckham's speeches, which was offensive to him, W. J. Stone is rushing into republican papers with cards, which he says the democratic papers refuse to publish, renewing the allegation that he will not support Beckham because he is a beneficiary of the Music Hall convention. Mr. Stone of all men should keep quiet on that subject, for, according to his own statement, he is as deep in the mud as he would have us believe that Mr. Goebel was in the mire. His complaint is in substance, that in a single handed fight Hardin would have won the nomination, but that he and Goebel wrongfully combined and conspired together to thwart the will of the majority. Mr. Stone should thank the democratic papers for refusing to permit him to make an ass of himself in their columns.

THE republicans are trying to counteract the effect of the excellent impression made by Bryan in new New York by charging that he will be influenced by Richard Croker if elected. This, in the chaste language of Gov. Bradley, is an unmitigated lie, but if it were true, the people would nevertheless prefer a president who could be influenced by Croker to one absolutely controlled by Mark Hanna.

JUDGE GEORGE GRAY, of Maryland, a republican, who was appointed to a place on the Federal bench by McKinley, will vote for Bryan because he does not desire to see the foundation knocked from under the government. It is refreshing in these degenerate times to hear of a man who will not sell his vote for an office.

SENATOR CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW is very much disappointed with Bryan's speeches in New York, and it would have been a great surprise to us all had he not been, for in addition to being a hide-bound republican, it has long been his opinion that the only man in the country capable of making a great speech is Chauncey M. Depew.

THE campaign pictures of Mr. Yerkes have a blood-red back ground. This is very suggestive of one of Taylor's acts, all of which he has endorsed.

THE recent rollings of W. J. Stone show that he fully realizes that there is no more democratic moss for him to gather.

THE boast is openly made by republicans from the mountains that in case Mr. Yerkes is elected governor, his first act will be to pardon Caleb Powers and should Secretary Hill resign rather than sign the pardon, Powers will be immediately appointed Secretary of State by Yerkes. Do the good people of the State like the probability of such acts? If not they can express their disapproval at the polls next Tuesday week by voting for Gov. Beckham, against whom no breath of suspicion of wrong doing has ever attached and who is incapable of a wrong act. A vote for him will be a vote for the maintenance of law and the re-establishment of order throughout the State. It will be a vote to make assassins and assassination odious and a vote to restore the State to the place it had before the republicans brought shame and disgrace upon it. Vote for Beckham, law and order, justice and prosperity.

THE Chicago Chronicle strikes center when it says that until Taylor shall have been tried and convicted or acquitted the Goebel tragedy will remain a reproach to the States of Kentucky and Indiana alike. The hanging of a hundred minor conspirators will be no vindication of the outraged law so long as the man who is charged with being the master spirit of the murderous plot bids defiance to justice and is protected in his defiance by Gov. Mount in violation of the Federal constitution. Mount may persist in his refusal to surrender Taylor, and he may perchance escape punishment, but he will always be a pariah, and the man who protects him can not escape the infamy which that protection carries with it. Kentucklans should snow their condemnation of the protected and the protector by voting against the proxy of the man who confesses guilt by flight, and shows his craven nature by every act of a devious life.

AFTER inducing Mr. Sherman to resign his seat in the Senate to accept the office of secretary of State in order that Hanna might get his place, and then practically kicking him out of the cabinet, President McKinley's proclamation reciting his many virtues and expressing his and the country's sorrow over his demise, is about as hypocritical a document as an arrant hypocrite could indite. It is almost like adding insult to injury.

IN a recent flight of oratory, Hanna expressed the opinion that Bryan was not fit to be constable. This is about the only time he has told the truth since he mounted the raging stump, for Bryan is in no wise fitted for that position; but Hanna himself would make a model constable, his ability for collecting money especially fitting him for that job. But this is about the only office that he is capable of filling satisfactorily.

JUDGE CANTRILL is as good a judge of human nature as he is of law. He was convinced that Youtsey was shamming and his diagnosis has proven correct. Having escaped the gallows that he saw looming up before him, he has recovered his senses and is now as rational as anybody. Will the assassination organs please make a note of it?

THE platform from which Senator Hanna was speaking at Auburn, Neb., fell in the midst of his remarks. The collapse was certainly due to faulty construction for it couldn't have been caused by the weight of the Senator's argument.

THE London Times is in favor of the election of Bryan. The Times has always expressed the thought as well as the desire of England and this proves conclusively that England is really a friend of the United States.

ALL adverse comment on the extra session of the Legislature will cease when it is remembered that it accomplished the feat, hitherto considered impossible, of reducing a square to a circle.

POLITICAL.

Fifty-six of the 61 Washington county Brownies are back in line.

Fifteen hundred persons participated in the democratic horseback parade at Eminence.

Mr. Bryan made 19 speeches in Maryland and Delaware, Wednesday, making two lengthy speeches at night in Wilmington.

Hon. Charles J. Bronston, of Lexington, is back in line and will speak for Bryan and Beckham at the opera house in his city this afternoon.

Pormer Postmaster General John Wanamaker has taken the stump against Quay. In a speech in Philadelphia he said: "Tweedism at its worst was no worse than Quayism at its best."

At Springfield Yerkes spoke to a crowd of 1,000 which manifested no enthusiasm, while in another part of town Hon. D. H. Smith and Rev. Lew Wallace spoke to an enthusiastic audience twice as large.

Gov. Roosevelt continues to go against the bux-saw in New York. The farther he goes the more cheers for Bryan he seems to hear and the more he loses his temper. The New York Evening Post editorially denounces his conduct. Meantime the democrats gain strength in the Empire State.

John G Carlisle says he is going to winter his vote this year.

Gov. Beckham has approved the new election bill passed at the extra session of the Legislature.

A dozen of the best democratic stumpers in the State have been assigned to Louisville for Saturday night.

Rev. J. T. Stamper, who figured as a witness in the Powers and Howard trials, has since been deposed by two of his congregations and has resigned a third pastorate.

Gov. McCreary, who is in position to know, says that nine Congressional districts will give a democratic majority of 56,200. The 11th, he thinks, will go 16,000 republican. He gives no figures on the fifth district, but says the democrats have a show to carry it. The governor puts this district at 1,000 for the democrats.

Richard Croker pays his respects to Roosevelt as follows: "Roosevelt is off his head. He is going around the country talking crazy stuff. He is always looking for a fight, and he will get all he wants. He is a nice thing for vice president and possibly president, isn't he? Now let me tell you something. I have it from inside republican sources, that the argument that induced Roosevelt to accept the nomination for vice president, was that McKinley was a sick man, and likely to die soon. This is no second-hand talk. Men who were at the Philadelphia convention and followed Roosevelt through all his changes of mind told me the story, and they know what they were talking about. Now, suppose McKinley died and Roosevelt became President; how would things be? Just this way: Some morning the people would wake up and find themselves in a war, or the White House burned down. That's what would happen, sure. That's the kind of a man Roosevelt is."

The court of appeals has refused to grant a rehearing in the osteopathy case, in which a decision was recently rendered favorable to the osteopaths.

At Butler, Miss Sophronia Dunaway, aged 45 years, and mentally deranged, tied a rock around her neck, walked into the Licking river and was drowned.

It is said the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States will soon be effected, the formal terms of sale being conveyed by the Danish minister to the United States. The price is $7,000,000.

MATRIMONIAL.

After a quarrel with her lover Miss Delia Akers hung herself at Knox, Ind.

J. A Ridner and Miss Hettie Young were made one at George Thompson's Wednesday.

Deputy U. S. Marshal F. N. Isbell and Miss Minnie Culton were married at Pineville

Cabbell H. Chenault and Miss Anne, daughter of Col. and Mrs. William L. Crutcher, popular young people of Richmond, will marry Nov. 7.

Less than a year ago at Huntington, W. Va., twin sisters married twin brothers on the same day and both recently, within an hour of each other, gave birth to triplets. These families, it seems, increase by arithmetical progression.

Of the marriage of Hon C C. Bagby to Miss Alberta Susan Newlin at Danville yesterday, the Advocate says: Exactly at 11 o'clock the wedding march from Lohengrin began, with Miss Oxley at the pipe organ, and the groomsmen approached the chancel, two down either aisle. They crossed over and stood facing each other, two and two, from opposite sides of the chancel. The bride and groom came in together, walked down the right aisle and halted in front of the minister, at the altar, where Rev. Frank E Cooley pronounced them man and wife. The bride wore a handsome costume of tan henrietta, trimmed in white lace and a delicate tracery of gold, with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Mr. Bagby needs no introduction. A young man of genuine worth, a lawyer of ability and of great promise, one already honored by the people of his county, he takes this important step in life with every indication of prosperity before him. The young woman whose hand has been bestowed upon him is one of the most lovable of her sex and is sure to bring great happiness to her husband.

IF there ever was a time when democrats should come to the polls and vote it is now. There is every reason why every democrat should vote and see that his neighbor does likewise.

DEATH.—Miss Ella Watson, formerly postmaster at Lancaster, died suddenly at St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, of heart failure. She had been an invalid for two years or more.

A YEAR-OLD son of Samuel Clark son died at McKinney the other day and was buried in the cemetery there. Consumption, which killed its mother a few months ago, carried the little thing off.

HON. W. B. SMITH, of Richmond, who spoke at Liberty Monday, came by Hustonville and spoke to an audience of 100 or more there that night. His speeches at both places were highly spoken of.

DEMOCRATS you are urged to spend every spare moment between now and the election working for the party of law and order. If you can't do anything else see that all your neighbors get to the polls.

THE republicans have established headquarters over the Church of Christ on Lancaster Street and it is clearly evident that Mark Hanna has sent in a part of Lincoln county's pro rata. If democrats will do their duty the money squeezed out of officeholders, trusts, &c., will count for little or nothing.

HUNN & SHELBY have purchased 100 building lots in Junction City, most of which are located on Cemetery street. They will in the near future open several new streets and erect a number of three and four room cottages for renting purposes. The purchase was made of George S. Shelby.

STAMP YOUR CHECKS.—We are always glad to receive checks, but must ask that those who send them to put a revenue stamp on them. We can't afford to give up two cents for a $1 check and send 2,500 columns of reading matter for it to boot. And too the revenue laws says that the person who signs the check must stamp it.

THE court of appeals refused a new hearing in the case of W. H. Wearen, administrator of Frank Scott, against the L. & N. railroad. Mr. Scott was killed by one of the above company's trains at Rowland about four years ago and a jury gave Mr. Wearen $9,000 damages, which verdict was sustained by the court of appeals. Col. W. G. Welch and Hon. Harvey Helm were the attorneys for the plaintiff.

DEATH.—The friends of Miss Susan Alford, of Georgetown, are very much grieved to hear of her death. She died Tuesday of appendicitis, after being sick only a few days. Miss Alford had often visited Misses Eugenia Ware, Ada Cunningham and Victoria Bishop in the West End. She was a bright and attractive girl and had made a great many friends in the county who will be grieved to hear of her death. C.

THE despised and disreputable Louisville Post also espouses the cause of Dr. Williams, but praise from such a source is damnation indeed. "He is an excellent campaigner and altogether a popular candidate," says the paper which evidently regards Dr. Williams' stillhunt tactics and questionable methods as the height of political sagacity. There is nothing about the doctor to commend him even to the lower element of his party, which threw him the cold potato when it became satisfied no republican could defeat Mr. Gilbert, who has strengthened and cemented his hold upon the voters of the district by his manly and entirely creditable course in Congress.

BY a unanimous vote of both democratic and republican attorneys, the Pulaski circuit court was adjourned until after the November election.

WELLS.—Miss Ora Wells, the 17-year-old daughter of Green Wells, died Tuesday of typhoid fever and was buried at Highland Wednesday, after a short talk at the grave by Rev. J. M. Cook. The father and mother are both low with fever.

THE will of the late Judge F. S. Tuttle, who died at Junction City, left his daughter, the late Mrs. Ivon Fish, of this place, $5; while to a grand daughter he gave $7,500. The balance of his estate is divided equally between his wife and daughter, Mrs. Mack Kelley.

HAVING retired from business I desire to thank all of my friends who have given me their patronage, and all those knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to please call and settle at once and save further trouble, as I need the money badly. D. S Carpenter, Hustonville, Ky. 3t.

WOULD it not be a good idea for those excellent democratic papers, the Advocate and News, to stop talking about the price of ballots for a while and use more of their space trying to get republicans as well as all democrats to use them by stamping in the circle under the rooster? We think it would and offer the suggestion.

THE report is current that Dr. John Mason Williams' name will not appear on the ballots to be used in Mercer county because of the failure of the doctor to certify his nomination to the county clerk of that county. If this is true the voter who supports the corpulent doctor will either have to write his name on the ballot or get the clerk of the precinct to do so.

Hons. J. C. Beckham, of Shelbyville, and George E. Stone, of Liberty, will be two of the speakers at the great democratic rally to be held at Somerset tomorrow.

The Pulaski county election commissioners decided in favor of the "wets" in the local option contest at Somerset and the "drys" have taken an appeal to the circuit court.

Tobe Earls and Frank Eaton fought in Whitley county. Eaton was stabbed eight times and Earls was shot. Both men are fatally wounded.

A couple stopped at the Enterprise Hotel, Perryville, and engaged board for two weeks. In a few hours the man skipped out and left the woman, supposed to be his wife. She fainted when she found out he had deserted her and at the solemn hour of midnight started out walking for her home which she said was in Washington county. She gave her name as Fowler but would talk no further.

Good Store-House And Stand.

I have at Science Hill, Ky., on C. S. R. R., my store house and stand to rent. It has been a stepping stone to several fortunes and is one of the best stands in Kentucky. It has never been run a single year without big profits and of that 22 years I run it 17 years and my successor, Mr. Carr, is with me at my store at Somerset, hence the cause of it for rent. It is in excellent condition, good graneries and warehouses, hitching lot, &c. It is right on the K. R. just opposite a fine depot. No dray and a cheap place to do business. It is a nice little town, with an excellent school and good churches, no saloons and an ideal place to live. Write me at Somerset, Ky. W. J. GOODWIN.

BY SPECIAL REQUEST,

DR. GOLDSTEIN

Will Return to Stanford Nov. 10 and remain a few days

Dr. G. Goldstein, of Louisville, is in the city and will remain a few days only, and will fit glasses to the eyes of all who need them.

He has made the study of optics a specialty, and anyone in need of glasses cannot do better than give him a call. He can be found at the St. Asaph Hotel. Parents of children whose eyes are in any way affected should take them to Dr. Goldstein and have them examined. Too much care can not be taken in this particular, as any neglect on the parents may lead to most serious consequences in after life. If the eyes of a child need glasses the doctor can determine it and adjust such glasses as will be most apt to preserve and increase their strength. The doctor has been giving satisfaction for many years, and we recommend him as worthy the patronage of the public. Those suffering with their eyes should call on him and if he don't give them relief it will not cost them anything. He can adjust to any eyes and any age. A good glass rightly adjusted is a luxury to a person with failing sight they can ill afford to do without. A glass imperfectly adjusted is worse than no glass. Office hours from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. at the St. Asaph Hotel.

Mrs. Sue Mullins has sold to J. R. Stucky a cottage for $300.

Mr. Monk will move his meat market to the Pope building.

G. M. Ballard is on the sick list. W. O. Shepherd has moved across Roundstone on Pike's Peak.

W. S. Cummins and family will move to London this week where he has purchased an interest in a planing mill.

Livingston is a mountain city
And a railroad town,
And a quaint little place
Where wondrous freaks abound.
Situated on the banks of Rockcastle River
And the mouth of Roundstone Creek,
And surrounded by lofty mountains
Such as sportsmen seek.

Harry Dillion left Monday for London to run the saw mill for McKee & Cummins. Capt. Bentley has returned from Louisville, where he has been attending the State Masonic meeting. Miss Annie Ashlock has returned from Wildie, where she has been in the interest of her millinery and reports a good sale. Mrs. R. C. Wade attended the teachers' association. J. C. Carson, the jeweler, is on the sick list. Mrs. James Maguire has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. James Parsons, at Wildie. Mrs. John Shearer has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Maguire. Miss Purdy Merimee has been visiting her brother, W. T. Merimee, at the Eight Gables. Miss Annie Owens, of Macedonia, is visiting Misses Clara and Lena Griffin. Dr. Lucas was in Wildie last Friday and Saturday.

KINGSVILLE.

Born, to the wife of Daniel Reynols, a fine girl.

Elizabeth M. Creighton entertained a few of her friends Tuesday evening in honor of S. C. Carter, of Frankfort.

Miss Ella Chevolette gave an oyster supper at her home Saturday evening. The numerous guests report a good time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pearis, accompanied by her grandson, S. C. Carter, of Frankfort, arrived home Tuesday from an extended visit to relatives at Detroit, Pittsburg and Zanesville. O. S. C. Carter returned to Frankfort Wednesday, after a brief visit to relatives and friends here. Mack Williams spent Sunday with his mother here.

Mrs. Dave Hicks is quite ill. There are a good many sufferers from jaundice in our town and vicinity. It seems to be an epidemic. Little Jesse McCarty is ill of the jaundice. Mrs Cunduff is convalescent after a three weeks illness. Miss Bella Johnson is visiting her sister, Mrs Joe Carson, who has recently moved from Mt. Olive to near McKinney.

From misprint or some other cause, our announcement last week of the marriage of Edward W. Creighton and Eleanor J. Johnson was incomplete i. e. as to time and place. They were married at Lexington the 17th of last August, the marriage having been kept secret until very recently, when it was announced among their friends, causing quite a surprise.

MIDDLEBURG.

W. P. Keeney sold a house and lot to William Taylor for $300.

Wesley & Wesley are receiving their fall and winter stock of goods this week.

Saturday the Frye's Creek base ball club came over to play our team, who licked 'em clean off the face of the earth and our team returned the visit and beat them on their own ground worse than the bloomer girls beat Stanford.

There was a report circulated here on the 23rd that John Foley, who was run over at Junction City by a train, had died in a hospital at Lexington, but it is not believed to be true, as he was doing nicely under the circumstances on Saturday.

There was a musical entertainment given at the college last Friday evening. There will also be given an entertainment and box party at the same place on Friday evening Nov. 2nd, the proceeds of which is for the benefit of a library.

P. E. Gillette has removed from this place to Ohio, where he will take charge of a farm. Several of our citizens went to Liberty Monday to hear Hon. W. B. Smith's speech, with which they were all highly pleased. Dr. Perry Wesley will move into the house vacated by Mr. Gillette this week. Most of our sick people are improving with the exception of Mrs Joseph Fletcher, who is gradually growing weaker, and Miss Kate McIntosh, but Miss Kate is reported some better at this writing.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MT. VERNON.

If the voters will study and understand the turnpike question, they will vote for it.

Mt Vernon chapter No. 140 R. A. M. was installed here Monday by J. C. McKee, of London.

Frank Kleby's baby died early Tuesday morning in the arms of its sleeping father. It had been sick but a few days.

Prof A E Ewers has bought the dwelling of Abel Pennington. Mr. P. will build on his lot near the Baptist church.

The Kentucky Telephone Association held a call meeting in Lexington Tuesday, with 85 delegates present. Important business was transacted bearing on the service and general improvements.

Senator Whitehead spoke here Wednesday night. Burdett Manufacturing & Introduction Co., Chicago, is on the heading of a letter just received from our old friend, G. D. Burdett, formerly of Lancaster, and a correspondent of the INTERIOR JOURNAL. He makes inquiries for a business young man to work for them. Curtis Gover, Wm. Stuart, John Holmes, Isaac Herrin, James Guest and Sam Rothwell were some of the older men from the Crab Orchard in the parade here Monday.

Congressman Gilbert spoke here Monday to a large crowd, of which he surely felt proud. At 1 o'clock a marching cavalcade of 250 men came in on the Crab Orchard road headed by the Mt Vernon brass band; flags flying, banners afloat and mottos in profusion. "The Crab Orchard Smooth Riders," "Down with assassins," "16 to 1," etc. One mammoth flag required a wagon and team and four men to handle it. It was the best and most orderly turnout that ever took place in Mt. Vernon. There was no whooping and yelling or rowdyism. Everyone acted the gentleman. Crab Orchard deserves much credit for the part she took in the parade and our people are complimenting them and Brodhead very highly.

The turnpike question is now being agitated and from present indications it will carry; at least we are confident that if the voters are properly informed on the subject they will not vote against a move that will prove of greater material interest to Rockcastle than any enterprise ever undertaken for its advancement, not even excepting the railroads. The proposition is to sell $30,000 worth of county bonds at the option of the county at any time within 25 years and not to bear interest greater than 4 per cent. The proposed levy of 15 cents will raise $2,300 yearly, one-third of this amount being paid by the corporations, and by applying this each year toward paying off these bonds and interest, the whole debt can be wiped out in something like 20 years, though it is believed that the increase in immigration on account of good roads will increase the valuation of property to such an extent that the debt can be paid off in less time. Some parties at Livingston have, for reasons known to themselves, issued large circulars in opposition to the turnpike question and making misleading statements are made in them. It is claimed by those people that without compound interest the debt would in 25 years amount to $64,000 and that only $27,000 of this amount would be applied to road purposes. They didn't take the pains, or rather plain duty to state that one bond would be paid off yearly for the first several years and later the larger portion of two of the 30 bonds could be settled yearly thereafter and the whole debt closed out in less than 20 years. "A burden on the common people," says this circular. Let us see about that. There are 203 voters in this precinct and about the same average in the other eight precincts, who will have no tax to pay and only those who have property valued beyond $250 will pay any of this tax, and then the amount is so small that the property holder will scarcely feel it, besides the returns in way of advantages coming from good roads, his returns are more than 10 fold on his investment. The reasons given in this circular from Livingston are flimsy and wont stand investigation. These bonds can be sold here in the county and the money spent in construction of the pikes can be earned by our our own people, so the money is nearly all kept at home and instead of being a burden to the "common people" it will prove a God-send. Therefore the citizen who has made from $25,000 to $80,000 in the county, has sent his money elsewhere for investment, claiming there was no opportunity offered in our county for using it to advantage, all on account of having no good roads for the development and making opportunities for investment.

HUSTONVILLE.

Mr. Emmett McCormack's new house on the Stanford pike is rapidly approaching completion.

On Monday night there was a quiet dedication speaking here, the orator being Hon. W. B. Smith, of Richmond.

It is reported that Mr. John Foley, who was taken to the Lexington hospital after his terrible accident, is slowly improving.

In addition to her work here, Miss May C. Carpenter has taken charge of the music class of Middleburg College for Prof. J. W. Davis.

After boring a well nearly 100 feet deep, Myers & Lipps have found salt water just back of their mill, but think they can use it any way.

Miss Bettie Logan has left for Milladale, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Weatherford. Milladale will now have at least one good dressmaker. Miss Alice Cabbell has returned from Liberty, much to the delight of her friends.

On Wednesday, Mr Ed Powell and Miss "Crete" Bohoo went to Lexington to be married at the Phoenix Hotel, after which they repaired to the city of Louisville and in a few days will be at home to their friends. Doubtless this quondam old bachelor thinks "The world was sad—the garden was a wild! The man, the Hermit sighed—till woman smiled." May they "carry a joyful life between them as the two spires carried the cluster of Escobol" and may they "multiply their joys by sharing them and lessen their troubles by dividing them," as Spurgeon said. If reports be true, several other couples are preparing to kneel at the altar of Hymen. October is in many respects the ideal month for honeymoons. The great sun looks down with the eve of love and the golden vapors around him seem to envelop the lovers with the ambrient mantle of mutual happiness

Oh, the gilded haze
Of the October days!
And the warmth that the gold light is shedding!
Oh the joy that ensues,
(A rest from the blues)
When off comes an October wedding.

Oh the whirl of the leaves
Caught up by the breeze,
And their noisome earthward reclining!
Oh the hurry, the hustle,
The continuous bustle
Till after a big wedding dining!

Hon. John Sherman, after an eventful career of 52 years, died at Washington Tuesday. He served four terms in Congress, succeeding Salmon P. Chase in the Senate in 1861, serving four terms in that body also. He also served as secretary of State accepting the latter position so that Hayes could become President from Ohio. He was practically shelved by the administration and after a while he resigned. He was a great man in his day, and as a financier held high rank. He did not agree with the administration's imperialistic policy and wrote as follows to the New York World in 1898, which was probably his last public utterance: "In response to your request, I express my well-considered opinion that the United States ought not to accept sovereignty over the Philippines, but should secure the inherent right of the people of those islands to form and maintain a republican government similar to our own."

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.
